Horses Considered for the Selection:5 3 6 1 2

	5. FOX JOURNEY (GB) 58.5 OISIN MURPHY 7]=Showed ability all 3 starts at 2 yrs and boasts 2 wins from 4 starts this campaign, staying on to lead final 100 yds for the latest at Newbury (12f) last month. Attitude looks an asset and unlikely he's finished improving yet.
	3. WESTERTON (IRE) 60.0 RYAN MOORE 4]=Cemented positive start in handicaps when off the mark in a Sandown maiden (10f) on penultimate start in June and he took another step forward when third in a competitive Newmarket handicap (10f) 19 days ago, staying on gradually. Unexposed at this sort of trip and well worth considering.
	6. AMLETO (IRE) 58.0 TOM MARQUAND 6]=Brother to high-class 1 $\frac{1}{4}$ m-1 $\frac{1}{2}$ m winner Sea of Class who has progressed with each start to date, off the mark on return (gelded in interim) in a Chester maiden (10.3f, heavy) back in May. Did that readily and highly likely there's more to come now handicapping up in trip.
	1. TAGABAWA (GB) 61.0 WILLIAM BUICK 11]=Gelded following promising 2-y-o campaign and duly landed a 4-runner Kempton handicap on return in April. Shaped well when sixth in Royal Ascot handicap next time but not in quite the same form at Newmarket (10f) since. Steps back up in trip now.
	2. STRUTH (IRE) 61.0 J FANNING 9]=Kicked off the campaign with success at Chester (12.3f, heavy) in May and made the frame on 3 of his 4 starts since, albeit not entirely convincing off the bridle having travelled best when third at Ascot (12f) last month. Still, easy ground will hold no fears and not out of things.
	4. TONY MONTANA (GB) 59.5 KEVIN STOTT 12]=425,000 gns Kingman colt who didn't need to improve when opening his account in a Newbury novice (10f) 3 weeks ago, going clear over 1f out. Plenty of stamina on dam's side to think he's worth a crack at this sort of trip now attentions switch to handicaps.
	7. INQUIRING MINDS (GB) 58.0 KIERAN O'NEILL 3]=All-weather maiden winner (10f) on debut in May who seemed to find Lingfield Derby Trial too much later that month. However, has shaped as if his opening mark is fair since, midfield in competitive 19-runner Royal Ascot handicap (12f) without being given a hard time. Remains with potential.
	8. CLAN CHIEFTAIN (GB) 57.0 HECTOR CROUCH 1]=Stepped up greatly on his debut effort last year when landing a Chepstow maiden (10f) in June, staying on to lead final 100 yds. Not in same groove at Newmarket later last month but very much the type to do better still in handicaps following wind up for his in-form yard.
	9. FRENCH INVASION (IRE) 56.0 FRANKIE DETTORI 8]=Well-bred colt who was a taking winner on debut at Kempton (12f) in January before following up under a penalty at Lingfield a month later. Possibly not 100% when third on handicap debut at Southwell (11f) thereafter (hung badly left 2f out) but he remains a bright prospect back from a break.
	10. THE GOAT (GB) 54.5 JASON WATSON 5]=Cracksman colt who surpassed previous form granted the run of things when third in 5-runner Kempton novice (11f) 21 days ago, headed 2f out and keeping on. Stamina drawn out a little more now handicapping.
	11. ALUMNUS (GB) 54.0 FRANCIS NORTON 10]=Displayed much-improved form equipped with a first-time visor when opening his account at Newcastle (12.5f) in June, allowed first run and in control long way out. Hard to knock his latest third back at that venue 4 days ago but still needs to prove himself as effective on turf.
	12. COOL PARTY (GB) 53.0 SAFFIE OSBORNE 2]=Progressive dual winner at around 1m as a juvenile. Yet to kick on in handful of starts this term, not making himself of any real short-term interest when third in 5-runner Sandown handicap (14f) 6 days ago. Connections opt for a first-time visor now.

2No.63. THE WHISPERING ANGEL OAK TREE STAKES (CLASS 1) (Group 3) 1408 14:253yo and up-56.5kg-OPEN (INDIA TIME 6:55 P M)*Horses Considered for the Selection:4 8 2 13 9

	4. JUMBL Y (GB) 59.5 RYAN MOORE 12]=Smart filly who has stated out well for her current yard, fading only late when fourth of 10 to Rogue Millennium in Duke of Cambridge Stakes at Royal Ascot (8f) 32 days ago. This drop back to 7f looks a good move and she's a strong contender given she has winning form on soft ground too.
	8. BREEGE (GB) 56.5 JASON HART 3]=Smart filly who took her form up a level when an excellent second of 29 in Sandringham Handicap at Royal Ascot (8f, good to firm) 40 days ago. Proven on soft ground too so this low-mileage filly is not taken lightly.
	2. FAST RESPONSE (IRE) 59.5 CLIFFORD LEE 1]=Three-time 5f/6f winner on testing ground last autumn. Yet to score this term but she comes here on the back of a very good second of 10 to Holguin in 7f listed race at Chester 18 days ago. Can make her presence felt again.
	13. MATILDA PICOTTE (IRE) 56.5 RONAN WHELAN 16]=Useful Irish filly who came in a good third in 1000 Guineas at Newmarket in May. Raced in unfavoured centre when fourth to Little Big Bear in Sandy Lane Stakes at Haydock (6f, good to firm) last time and not to be underestimated.
	9. DREAM OF LOVE (IRE) 56.5 WILLIAM BUICK 8]=Useful filly who backed up a good third in the German 1000 Guineas at Dusseldorf with a solid seventh of 29 under top weight in Sandringham Handicap at Royal Ascot. Possibilities.
	1. AMERICAN KESTREL (IRE) 59.5 CHRISTOPHE SOUMILLON 5]=Fairly useful filly. Off for 7 months since posting a creditable fifth in listed race at Longchamp (7f, heavy) on her sole run for Joseph O'Brien. Back with former yard now and no forlorn hope.
	3. INTERNATIONAL ANGEL (IRE) 59.5 MARCO GHIANI 2]=Useful mare. Not disgraced when 3 ¹ / ₄ lengths fifth of 7 to White Moonlight in listed race at Chelmsford City (7f) 24 days ago. It's now thirteen runs since her last win in 2022, however.
	5. SAMEDI RIEN (IRE) 59.5 JIM CROWLEY 13]=Useful Spanish filly who arrives in good nick, second of 9 in minor event at Madrid (8f, good) 46 days ago. She has won on soft ground too and can't be dismissed.
	6. SICILIAN DEFENSE (GB) 59.5 ALEXIS POUCHIN 15]=Useful French filly who landed Longchamp listed race in May before posting a creditable 3 ³ / ₄ lengths fourth in Prix de la Porte Maillot there month later. Has a turn of foot and needs considering.
	7. WHITE MOONLIGHT (USA) 59.5 OISIN MURPHY 7]=Arrives on the up and bidding for a hat-trick following 7f listed wins at Musselburgh and Chelmsford City this summer. This is tougher but she is proven on a soft surface and shouldn't be underestimated.
	10. GLENLAUREL (IRE) 56.5 N CALLAN 10]=Consistent sort who recorded a creditable 2 ¹ / ₄ lengths fourth of 10 to Vetiver in listed race at Carlisle (7f, soft) 35 days ago. This demands a clear personal best, though.
	11. JULIET SIERRA (GB) 56.5 ROB HORNBY 4]=Fairly useful 6f juvenile winner who wasn't disgraced when 3 ³ / ₄ lengths eighth of 10 to Swingalong in Summer Stakes at York (6f, good to firm) 19 days ago. This is no easy ask.
	12. MAGICAL SUNSET (IRE) 56.5 DAVID EGAN 14]=Likeable type who comes here in good nick, close seventh of 11 to Mystic Pearl in listed race at Sandown (8f, good) 25 days ago. A winner in the mud so she's much respected.
	14. OLIVIA MARALDA (IRE) 56.5 KEVIN STOTT 9]=Useful filly who got off the mark for her current yard in 7f listed event at Epsom. Confirmed that improvement when excellent fifth of 15 in Jersey Stakes at Royal Ascot (7f, good to firm) later in June. Not discounted.
	15. RAGE OF BAMBY (IRE) 56.5 CHARLES BISHOP 6]=Won her first 2 starts before good third in Rockfel Stakes at Newmarket in September. Made a tame return though in listed contest at Chelmsford 79 days ago so has something to prove.
	16. SYDNEY ARMS CHELSEA (IRE) 56.5 TOM MARQUAND 11]=Useful juvenile who landed Group 3 Prix Six Perfections at Deauville (7f) before signing off with a good fifth in Rockfel Stakes at Newmarket (7f). Off 10 months and this is no easy return. Hood on for 1st time.

3No.64. THE JAEGER-LECOULTRE MOLECOMB STAKES (CLASS 1) (Group 3) 1005 15:002yo-58.5kg-OPEN (INDIA TIME 7:30 P M)*Horses Considered for the Selection:3 5 8 7 2

	3. BIG EVS (IRE) 58.5 JASON HART 8]=Finished runner-up on debut at Redcar and took a significant step forward when a commanding 3 length winner of the listed Windsor Castle at Royal Ascot (5f, good to firm) 6 weeks ago. Has bags of natural speed and could well take plenty of catching.
	5. KYLIAN (IRE) 58.5 RYAN MOORE 3]=Took another step forward to get off the mark in good style switched to all-weather at Newcastle in June and showed much improved form when following up in listed race at Sandown (5f, good) last month, settling matters quickly with a good turn of foot. Looks sure to be in the mix.
	8. SHAGRAAN (IRE) 58.5 JIM CROWLEY 5]=Sioux Nation colt who left debut form behind when winning Windsor novice in good style last month. Progressed again upped in grade when runner-up in listed race at Newbury (good) 12 days ago and fancied to keep on improving dropped to the minimum trip for the first time.
	7. PUROSANGUE (GB) 58.5 OISIN MURPHY 4]=Bred for speed and duly made an impressive racecourse bow when making all in minor event at Haydock (5f, good to firm) in June. Matched rather than advanced that form when fifth in July Stakes at Newmarket (6f, good to firm) just under 3 weeks ago and he remains with potential.
	2. BARNWELL BOY 58.5 WILLIAM BUICK 2]=Early foal who quickened up in the style of a useful juvenile when making a decisive winning debut at this track (6f) in May. Best excused the run when well behind Big Evs in listed Windsor Castle at Royal Ascot next time and remains capable of better.
	1. BAHEER (IRE) 58.5 PAT DOBBS 7]=Mehmas colt who took knew a whole lot more than on debut and looked a useful sprinting 2-y-o when getting off the mark at Newbury (6f, good to firm) last month. Yard won the last 2 renewals of this race and he looks the sort to go on improving.
	4. HACKMAN (IRE) 58.5 TOM MARQUAND 6]=Confirmed the promise of his debut to score at Chester in May and having shaped as if amiss when well held in Windsor Castle at Royal Ascot in June, wasted no time getting back to form when placed in listed company for a second time at Sandown last month. Tongue tie on but this a huge ask.
	6. MARKAKOL (GB) 58.5 DAVID EGAN 1]=Starspangledbanner colt who stepped up on his debut effort when winning 5f Newcastle novice in decisive fashion last month. Not up to the task in listed company at Newbury since, so likely to come up short in this company.

4No.65. THE QATAR SUSSEX STAKES (CLASS 1) (Group 1) (British Champions Series) 1609 15:353yo and up-58.5kg-OPEN (INDIA TIME 8:05 P M)*Horses Considered for the Selection:6 4 1 3 2

	6. PADDINGTON (GB) 58.5 RYAN MOORE 4]=Superbly campaigned and has developed into the leading 3-y-o, running out a decisive winner of the St James's Palace Stakes before edging out a high-class mare in Emily Upjohn taking on his elders for the first time in the Eclipse Stakes. Return to 1m no issue and he holds outstanding claims.
	4. INSPIRAL (GB) 60.5 FRANKIE DETTORI 6]=Very smart filly who cast aside a shock reversal in the Falmouth with a ready success in Prix Jacques le Marois at Deauville last summer. Cracking reappearance when second in the Queen Anne, outpointed close home and this previous Goup 1 winner against the males is the obvious threat to Paddington.
	1. ALDAARY (GB) 61.5 JIM CROWLEY 2]=Very smart handicapper in 2021, winning brace of big-field contests at Ascot. Listed winner sole start in 2022 but not in the same form both outings upon return in July and this no easy race to bounce back in.
	3. FACTEUR CHEVAL (IRE) 61.5 MAXIME GUYON 5]=Progressive 3-y-o, culminating with Group 3 Prix Perth success at Saint-Cloud. Ran right up to form all 3 starts this spring, third of 6 in a bunched finish tackling Group 1 company for the first time at Longchamp in May (9.2f). This asks another question.

	2. CHINDIT (IRE) 61.5 PAT DOBBS 3]=Landed the Group 2 Summer Mile at Ascot last year last year and added a listed race to his tally on his reappearance in May. Excelled himself when runner-up in the Lockinge but not in quite the same form when md-field in the Queen Anne Stakes when last seen in June.
	5. CHARYN (IRE) 58.5 DAVID EGAN 1]=Smart colt who excelled himself when hitting the frame in the Irish Guineas and the St James's Palace Stakes, both won by Paddington. Made no impression dropped to 7f in the Prix Jean Prat at Deauville 3 weeks ago and while the return to 1m will suit, he's very likely to come up short.

Horses Considered for the Selection:4 3 12 6 5

	4. FLORA OF BERMUDA (IRE) 58.0 OISIN MURPHY 2]=Improved on debut when 1¼ lengths second in class 2 event at Beverley, her rider opting to weave way through the pack while the winner made her ground down the outside. First home on the far side when sixth of 26 in Queen Mary at Royal Ascot since and obvious claims down in class.
	3. DAPPERLING (IRE) 58.0 SEAN LEVEY 6]=Gradually progressive and off the mark in straightforward fashion at Lingfield. Excellent second of 20 in Weatherbys Super Sprint at Newbury since, showing plenty of dash. Must be respected.
	12. TROPICAL ISLAND (GB) 58.0 OISIN ORR 5]=£19,000 yearling, £135,000 2-y-o, Inns of Court filly. Half-sister to 1¼m winner Jimmy Mark. Dam 2-y-o 5f winner. Justified market confidence in Ripon maiden 11 days ago, doing well to overcome both greenness and a troubled passage. Hard to know what that form is worth but she's sure to progress.
	6. INDISPENSABLE (GB) 58.0 TOM MARQUAND 4]=Put experience to good use when winning at Ripon in June. Pulled too hard in listed race at Newmarket but firmly back on track when close third in similar event at Naas last week, settling much better under a change of tactics (held up). Merits consideration.
	5. HARVANNA (GB) 58.0 CLIFFORD LEE 9]=Progressive filly who defied a penalty at Yarmouth in good style 3 weeks ago. Blessed with a turn of pace that should see her hold her own at this higher level.
	1. BEENHAM (IRE) 58.0 RICHARD KINGSCOTE 11]=Havana Grey filly who confirmed debut promise when making all in C&D novice. Disappointed in listed company at York but resumed progress when sixth of 20 in Weatherbys Super Sprint at Newbury, second home in her group (behind the winner). Not taken lightly.
	2. COTAI VISION (IRE) 58.0 SAFFIE OSBORNE 1]=Confirmed debut promise at the second attempt (struggled in Queen Mary previously) when all-the-way winner of Bath maiden 2 weeks ago. Needs to take another big step forward in this much more demanding race.
	7. JUNIPER BERRIES (GB) 58.0 CHARLES BISHOP 7]=Impressive when making a winning start at Bath and posted a couple of positive efforts since, notably when fourth in the Queen Mary at Royal Ascot. Bit disappointing in Weatherbys Super Sprint at Newbury since but big player if back to her best.
	8. LOOBY (GB) 58.0 JIM CROWLEY 10]=Shaped quite a lot better than the bare result when fifth of 11 in novice at Windsor (6f, good to soft) on debut but went backwards at Newmarket since. Easy to look elsewhere.
	9. MAKE IT EASY (IRE) 58.0 RONAN WHELAN 12]=Progressing well, off the mark at the third attempt in Catterick maiden 3 weeks ago, pulling clear of a subsequent winner. This much harder but she has more potential than most.
	10. PRINCESS CHIZARA (IRE) 58.0 DARRAGH KEENAN 13]=Defied big odds to win 4-runner maiden at Brighton (5.3f, firm) on debut, blitzing her rivals. Struggled in Queen Mary at Royal Ascot since but should make more of an impact here.
	11. THANKSBUTNOTHANKS (IRE) 58.0 KEVIN STOTT 3]=Promising first effort when runner-up in a Ascot maiden and didn't need to improve when going one better at Lingfield. However, found it tough upped in class since and she looks to be up against it once more.
	13. ZIGGY'S DREAM (IRE) 58.0 KIERAN O'NEILL 8]=Knew her job when justifying support at Doncaster in April. Mixed record since but latest 3 lengths fifth of 8 in listed race at Tipperary was a decent effort. Bit to find here, however.

	10. DECORATION (IRE) 54.5 DAVID EGAN 1]=Has improved with each start, getting off the mark at the third attempt in a Windsor maiden (10f) with Value Added in second. Beaten only by another progressive type at the same C&D on handicap debut 9 days ago, so she can resume winning ways with more still to offer.
	6. LA ISLA MUJERES (FR) 57.5 HECTOR CROUCH 7]=Off the mark at Kempton (11f) in June and improved further when following up in handicap at Salisbury (9.9f) 18 days ago, leading again over 2f out and forging clear. Not taken lightly with any rain in her favour.
	11. THERAPIST (GB) 54.0 WILLIAM COX 9]=Switched to handicap company, showed improved form when gaining a first success at Newmarket (10f) in July. Shaped well upped in grade when third at the same C&D 12 days ago, edged out only late on by a pair ridden more patiently. Can give another good account.
	8. VALUE ADDED (GB) 56.0 N CALLAN 12]=Runner-up to Decoration at Windsor before going one better in minor event at Wolverhampton (9.5f) 22 days ago, having the run of the race when seeing off the challenge of Queen Regent. May do better still, but has the widest draw to overcome.
	4. THERE'S THE DOOR (IRE) 58.5 RICHARD KINGSCOTE 2]=Stepped up on her juvenile form when readily landing a Doncaster handicap (10.2f) in April and confirmed her effectiveness on testing ground when second in Cheshire Oaks (11.3f) next time. Ran creditably back in handicap company 19 day ago, but will need to find more again.
	5. QUEEN REGENT (GB) 58.0 OISIN MURPHY 10]=Confirmed debut promise when opening her account in minor event at Newcastle (1m) in February. After 5 months off, shaped well when second behind Value Added at Wolverhampton (9.5f), caught further back than ideal. Shortlisted with further improvement to come.
	1. ROUSAY (IRE) 64.5 SEAN LEVEY 4]=Listed winner at Salisbury last summer and ran well when fourth at that level at Kempton final 3-y-o start. However, failed to come on for her reappearance when down the field in Group 3 at Newcastle in June. Second in this race a year ago, but has work to do this time around.
	2. SIRONA (GER) 60.5 WILLIAM BUICK 8]=Listed winner in Germany at 2yrs and, after couple of below-par efforts (including at this C&D in May), got back on track when runner-up in handicap at Newmarket (1m) 20 days ago. Stayed on strongly final 1f last time, so she could build on her latest effort back up in trip.
	3. PERSIST (GB) 60.0 TOM MARQUAND 11]=Won twice last season, with her second success in handicap at Haydock (10.2f) in September. Form of her sixth at Newmarket next time working out well, but after 9 months off she was typically slowly away when below form at Newcastle a month ago. Needs to step forward from her return.
	7. CHIPS AND RICE (GB) 56.0 JIM CROWLEY 6]=Having made a winning seasonal/stable debut at Lingfield (10f) in April, got back on the up when scoring readily at Brighton 22 days ago. However, this is a much tougher task as she goes up in grade.
	9. IN THESE SHOES (IRE) 55.0 J FANNING 5]=After 6 months off, gained a first handicap success at Beverley (7.4f) in April and ran at least as well when runner-up at Newmarket (7f) in July. Produced a rare below-par effort 9 days ago, but no surprise to see her bounce back as she goes up in trip.
	12. NEVER ENDING (IRE) 53.5 KIERAN O'NEILL 3]=Built on the promise of her first 2 starts when winning minor event at this course (1m) in June, despite still looking green under pressure. However, unable to find any further progress when fifth of 7 on handicap debut at Newmarket (10f) later the same month.

		5. RHOSCOLYN (GB) 61.0 OISIN MURPHY 4]=C&D winner. Has had 25 runs since his last win but there have been plenty of good efforts in defeat since then and he shaped as if he might be ready to take advantage of his falling mark when second at Beverley 9 days ago. Has run well at this meeting before. Player under Oisin Murphy.
		14. LOVE DE VEGA (IRE) 57.5 FRANKIE DETTORI 7]=Lost his way in the second half of last year but has dropped to a favourable mark and shaped as if retaining plenty of ability when sixth of 12 on his 7f Newmarket reappearance 19 days ago. Frankie Dettori has won on him before. Interesting contender.
		4. URBAN SPRAWL (GB) 61.0 J FANNING 8]=This likeable type bagged a nice price over C&D (good to firm) in May. Excellent third in the Britannia at Royal Ascot and presumably found the run coming too soon when last of 6 at Newmarket a week later. Freshened up since and capable of bouncing back. All ground seems to come alike to him.
		1. DARKNESS (FR) 64.5 JASON WATSON 12]=First success for this yard when seeing off 7 rivals at Newmarket (1m, good to firm) 3 weeks ago. Softer ground no issue for him and he should remain competitive up 3 lb.
		8. DARK THIRTY (IRE) 60.5 SEAN LEVEY 2]=Back to winning ways at York (7f) in May. Good fourth over C&D next time and bounced straight back from a lesser run in the Britannia when third of 16 at Newmarket's July meeting. Stable has good record in this.
		2. HAZIYM (IRE) 63.5 CLIFFORD LEE 10]=Capable of useful form on turf in France last year. Down the field in 3 AW handicaps for current yard over the winter. Could only consider if backed on this first outing for 168 days.
		3. ISLA KAI (IRE) 62.5 ROWAN SCOTT 9]=Capitalised on drop in weights/class to end losing run at Ripon (1m, heavy) in April. Has found life tougher since but the fact he's dropped back to that last successful mark makes him a dangerous one to discount.
		6. THUNDER BALL (GB) 61.0 RICHARD KINGSCOTE 16]=Has done most of his racing on AW but proved better than ever when belatedly off the mark in 7f Newbury novice in May. Backed that up when a fine fourth of 29 in the Britannia at Royal Ascot in June. Closely matched with Urban Sprawl on that form. Going softer than good an unknown.
		7. BAILEYSGUTFEELING (IRE) 61.0 SAFFIE OSBORNE 14]=Won a 7f handicap at Leicester and a 6f seller at Leicester (final start for Kevin Philippart De Foy) at the start of the summer. Good third on Ffos Las yard debut but not in the same form when sixth at Haydock since.
		9. PHYSIQUE (IRE) 60.5 MOHAMMED LYES TABTI 11]=Newmarket novice winner at 2. Placed twice over C&D (good to firm/heavy) and not disgraced when tenth of 29 in the Britannia at Royal Ascot. Freshened up since.
		10. WOBWOBWOB (IRE) 60.5 TOM MARQUAND 13]=Couple of good in-frame efforts on heavy ground in the spring. Excuses on his next 2 outings and unseated at the start at Ripon last time.
		11. CLASSIC (GB) 60.5 PAT DOBBS 15]=Useful 7f winner at 2. Not up to Group 3 level in the Greenham on Newbury reappearance but back on track in handicaps since, winning over 7f at Sandown (good) last month. Only nudged up 2 lb and a player if a wide draw doesn't inconvenience.
		12. LARADO (FR) 60.5 THEODORE LADD 5]=Dual 7f winner last year but fourth was the best he could manage in 5 outings on AW at the beginning of 2023. Off for 5 months ahead of this return to turf.
		13. FARASI LANE (IRE) 59.5 HECTOR CROUCH 17]=Second success of the year when edging ahead close home at Ascot (7f, soft) 18 days ago. The second and third boosted than form when winning last week. Wide draw has the potential to make like tricky but he could still be well treated.
		15. HARRY MAGNUS (IRE) 56.5 WILLIAM BUICK 3]=Made a winning handicap debut at Newmarket (7f, good to soft) under William Buick in May. Not helped by slowish starts when below that level on both subsequent outings. Still early days, though, and could bounce back if breaking on terms.

	16. MAMILLIUS (GB) 56.5 N CALLAN 1]=Latest win at Lingfield in May. 12/1, below-form fifth of 8 in handicap at Brighton (7f, good) 36 days ago. Others are more obvious.
	17. SECRET STRENGTH (IRE) 56.0 DAVID EGAN 6]=Back to winning ways at Newbury (7f, good to firm) in June but slow starts are an issue for him and he completely blew his chance with a very slow one at Epsom since.
